MACDONALD HIGH SCHOOL: MATHEMATICS COURSE OUTLINE

Mathematics 236   Teacher: L. McGovern

COURSE CONTENT:

Ratio, Rate and Proportion	Transformations
Proportional Relationships	The Circle
Calculating Percent	Regular Polygons
Data Management and Graphing	Geometry and Relationships
Expressions and Equations	Lateral Area and Surface Area (Solids)
Fraction Operations	Similar Figures
Integers	Probability
Representations of a situation	Mid-Year/June Exam

COURSE EVALUATION AND CRITERIA:

Three terms: 1st term – 20%
                       2nd term – 20%
                       3rd term – 60%

*Evaluation will be generated mainly from tests.

Written homework and study are important elements for success in math. A minimum of 30 minutes daily should be allocated to homework and study, including the review of course notes.

CLASS/CONTACT INFORMATION:

Website: mcgovernmath.weebly.com

Email: lmcgovern02@lbpearson.ca

COURSE MATERIALS:

- A binder (to be used exclusively for math)
- Looseleaf and graph paper
- Pencils and white eraser
- Blue and red pens
- 3-4 colouring pencils
- Staedtler brand geometry set with ruler
- 1 Hilroy or similar type book
- Scientific calculator
- Highlighters

PARENT/GUARDIAN SIGNATURE:

_____